manager got noted or him and toek him on a sparring tour with a combination. And from this chrysalis was evolved the great John L. who whipped Paddy Ryan. Whether he is still the great John L. will be decided July 8—if the fight is not declared off before that

Louis J. Beck, the New York Illustrated

Actes champion human pin-cushion, is going to England to give exhibitions of his pin-cushionery powers. Archie Sinclair, the great English manager and pedestrian, will look after the pin-cushion while on its travels.

and his shoulders particularly powerful.

In a spirit of bravado and to show their Campbell and Wright, the intercollegiate tennis players recently won the "National tropical championship"—whatever that may be—at St. Augustine, Fla.

The recent cross-country run of the Union

Athletic Club was a brilliant success. Eight miles were covered in fifty-seven minutes. Twenty-five members participated.

The Bughton Athletic Club will hold a tournament April 2 at Schiellen's Assembly Rooms, Brooklyn. It is open to amateurs

The late bare-knuckle prize-fight between Patrick Molloy and James Kelly, weiter-weights, was a fierce one from start to finish. Thirty-two bloody rounds were fought. Kelly was finally knocked unconscious by a victous swinging left-hand upper-out.

The regular run of the Alierton Athletic Club occurs to morrow. The start will be from Benner's Hotel, Ridgewood, L. I.

Reagan and Dempsey.

SATURDAY EVENING, MARCH 23. EUBSCRIPTION TO THE EVENING EDITION

VOL. 29......NO, 10,077

Entered at the Post-Office at New York as second-class

EVENING WORLD "SENSATIONS." Mr. Ernsipoe T. Gersy, enraged at the probable passage of the Children's bill, accuses THE EVENING WORLD of being "sen-

Well, THE EVENING WORLD did get up a "sensation" about that exiled orphan, JCSIE SHEPHARD. And he was returned to

THE EVENING WORLD aroused another " sensation " about the atrocious abduction of little TINA WEISS. And she, too, was re-

As memory serves us. THE EVENING WORLD made another "sensation" about the closing of Stuyvesant Park. And the gates of the people's property were opened to the people!

THE EVENTRO WORLD also furnished some " sensational" facts about the Twenty-third street bobtails. And they have disappeared!

THE EVENING WORLD made another "senantion" about the policy dealers, those meanest of cambiers. And several of them were

THE EVENING WORLD "sensationally" came to the rescue of FREDERICE WITTE, who, under an unjust charge, was in danger of being railroaded to prison. And he was honorably discharged !

Oh, yes, THE EVENING WORLD has got up a good many "sensations," too many to resount. But there seems to be a backbone to them, and they have furthered the ends of justice and pleased the common people.

Not least among Evening World so-called "sensations" is the effort to secure justice for parents and children, as embodied in the Children's bill. And Mr. GERRY will have a worse opinion of THE EVENING WORLD than ever when the end of this fight is reached!

BAVE THE POLO GROUNDS.

It is hoped that the Aldermanic Committee will render a report favoring the retention of the Polo Grounds for baseball purposes for

But no definite action has yet been taken. and nothing is secure until secured.

That proportion of the property-owners who want One Hundred and Eleventh street graded through the field at once continue to make the most vigorous efforts to attain their

In the division of the property-owners over this question the voice of the public should have decisive weight. And THE EVENING outp petition shows how the public fee Our malis are swamped with the signed petitions. A large bundle of the petitions were a big army.

A group of glorious men, And people know, when they appear, The town's all right again!

But, Chaunce Depew, can it be true You're going for to be Henvoy at Balmoral and Kew? Oh, woe, oh, woe is me! How can the papers come out if You are not here. Depew. To give an idle yarn a biff Or grant an interview 7 Selah!

Detroit women began voting yesterday, or at seast began getting ready to vote by registering Some of 'em had to register in saloons. Registration in saloons, however, is nothing new. Hundreds of people in saloons register solemn yows that their "lips shall never touch another drop," and then drink rum through a funnel.

EMBEZZLER HARDIE CAUGHT,

Fitzpatrick & Co.'s Defaulting Bookkeeper

Arrested in Hallfax. Henry Hardie, the bookkeeper for James Henry Hardie, the bookkeeper for James Fitzpatrick & Co., manufacturers of corsets at 58 Worth street, who stole $3,900 of his employer's money and fled to Canada, was eleverly captured in Halifax yesterday.
Hardie filled out a blank signed check for $3,900 and took $3,400 of it with him. The remainder he deposited in the Butchers' and gs, soo and took $3,400 of it with him. The remainder he deposited in the Butchers' and Drovers' Bank.

On March 13 he wrote from Canada for the balance due him. The bank notified the firm and Detective McCauley and a member of the firm started to Canada, where Hardie was caught with $3,000 in his pockets.

He will light against his extradition and has engaged counsel. District Attorney Lindsay will send on the papers.

Riker's Compound Saranparille Riker's Compound Saranparilla. Is composed of Saranparilla, Danicellon, Yellow Dock, Bardock, Chamonille, Gentian, Kinbard, Mandeake, Iron, &c. You can judge for yourself if it be good. As some control of the control

MODEL SCHOLARS. PHILADELPHIA FAVORS IT. teen he was a general butt for the foolery of the young men of the place. They would meet him on the street, ask, "Well, John, how goes it to-day," give him a punch in the ribs and pass on. Sullivan would grin and Smart Boys and Girls Who Are the Pride of Their Teachers.

Primary School No. 34's Prodigles Introduced to the Public.

Their Names, Their Years and Sketches of Their Little Lives.

Among the thousands of little folks who atwere not to be found a goodly number of genuine infant prodigies. THE EVENING WORLD has been looking into readers some of the brightest of these little girls and boys, and has discovered so many clever youngsters that to bring them all forward to make their bow to the public would be almost an impossible undertaking.

It has, however, determined to present some of the most precocious scholars in each of the primary schools, and begins to-day with a choice and interesting selection from Primary School No. 34, which is located in Pearl street, near Beekman.

Miss C. C. Burke is the Principal, and the roll of the school contains about two hun-

The portraits of the children presented all anow bright and intelligent faces, and it is to fight he simply puts his stake way up out not difficult to imagine that they possess all the cleverness and promise attributed to them by their teachers. The first is Annie Dearden, who has been attending the school since September, 1885, when she entered the lowest class at the age of five years. She lives with her parents at 99 John street, and has always shown remarkalways shown remarkable aptness in her studies, having been promoted regularly every year. Her bright answers and original ideas have delighed her teachers, who her teachers, who have made a sort of pet of her, as she is one of the smallest and most delicate-looking scholars in the class. She is pre-eminent in penmanship and deportment. She is the fourth of her family to graduate at the school.

Johnnie Delahanty, who is eight years old, and lives at 13 Peck slip, is the second, who is deserving of mention in the first class.

He has come up from the fifth grade since May, 1886, when he entered the school, and is described as a and is described as a wonder of juvenile precociousness. He learns very easily and has already distanced the boys, and though full of life, he always has a good record for punctuality and descent for punctuality and des

Lulu Sullivan, who, with the two already nentioned, will be promoted to Grammar nentioned, will be promoted by 1 next o, with the two already promoted to Grammar School No. 1 next June, is a pretty little girl of seven. Al-though one of the youngest scholar in her class, she is one of the brightest and quickest and holds her own with all the older chil-dren in the school dren in the school. She has had four brothers and sisters graduate at the school, and she herself at-tended for a year be-fore she was old LULU SULLIVAN. nough to be entered upon the rolls as a regu-ar scholar, which was in September, 1887. lar scholar, which was in September, 1887. She lives at 110 South street. One of her accomplishments is that of singing, and the same is true of Annie Dearden, both of them having remarkably sweet and clear voices. Her writing is also exceptionally sent to the Aldermanic Committee this morning. And they are but the advance guard of a big army.

Sign that petition and Save the Polo Grounds!

MUNDANE MATTERS.

John Ward is back in town to-day, John Sullivan's here too;
Pete Barnum's show's on hand, they say, And so is "Chaunce" Depew!

The great of Gotham gather here, A group of glorious men, graduated from the school last year among annie stutzman. the best scholars.

the age of six years, at the age of six years, and has always shown an ambition to hold a place at the top of the class, in which she and Annie are rivals for first honors. She is marked excellent in music and reading.

She is a bright little thing, and he age! thing, and has a pair of roguish black eyes that are brimming over with fun and mer-

LOUISE HEINZE. Timent all the time.
She is a universal faorite with teachers and scholars.

In the fifth class, Maggie Kelly, of 344 Pearl treet, comes first. She was entered on the street, comes first. Sh roll as a regular scholar in December, 1887. She was then five years old, but she had been coming to the school quite reguorightest of them all.

MAGGIE KELLY.

The smartest boy in the fifth grade is Max Cohen, of 10 Peck alip, who was six years old when he became a reg-ular scholar in March, 1887. He has always 1887. He has always been a remarkably bright child, and, like his sister Bertha, who gratuated not long ago, is the acknowledged head of the class. Although one of the most active children in the school, full of life and boysh spirits, he is a good boy, and his deportment is excellent. The boys have nicknamed him 'Moxis."

full of life and boyish spirits, he is a good boys, and his deportment as to strength and economy. It is sold by all druggiets. Be sure to get Hood's.

MONELL'S TERTHING CORDIAL allays irritation from technics. Everybody can buy it, Frice 20 cents, "a" lithe only medicine of which can truly be said, "1000 Doses Cone Dollar," which is an unanswerable argument as to strength and economy. It is sold by all druggiets. Be sure to get Hood's.

HOOD'S FILLS—The great liver invigorator, purely vegetable, unequalled as a family physic and dinner pill. Sold by druggiets, or sent by mail—25 cents are box. Frepared only by C. I. HOOD & CO., Lowell, Mass.

SPORTS IN THAT CITY WANT THE $1,000 CHAMPIONSHIP STAKE.

Kilrain During His Days as an Amateur Onremns-McAuliffe Refuses to Fight for a $2,000 Stake and $1,500 Parse-A New Aristogratic Coursing Club... Billy Clancey Is Anxious to Meet Madden.

That $1,000 championship stake rule will have to be adopted sooner or later, and the sooner the better. This is the verdict of all the prominent sporting men. They say that a stipulation requiring a champion to fight when challenged for a $1,000 stake, or torfeit the championship, should be inserted in the regulations governing the holding of the championship belts. By this means all quibble and cavil would be avoided. The excuse of tend the primary departments of our public the champions is that they would then have schools it would be strange indeed if there to fight much oftener than they do now. A. W. Cooke has telegraphed to Richard R. Fox that he is willing to accept him as stake-holder. Also that "Al" Smith would be perfectly satisfactory as referee, as would Matty Corbett. He said Capt. Connor declined to referee, and that McAulifie refuses to fight for a $2,000 stake and $1,500 purse. This is rather thin. If they do not want to fight let them take up with some other trade. Give the ones who do want to fight a chance. the subject with a view of introducing to its | Philadelphia sporting men's opinions are voiced by the following representatives at present in this city:

Walter Campbell-The attention of the sporting fraternity in Philadelphia has been attracted by the agitation of the $1,000 stake question in THE EVENING WORLD. Their unanimous verdict is that a rule should be enforced compelling a champion to flight for that amount or forfeit the championship. There are plenty of men who would like to meet Sullivan or Kilrain, only they know it would be impossible to raise the $10,000 stakes which these grand Moguls of the ring

Ted Pritchard, of Lambeth, England, the alleged "great" middle-weight wonder, who intends coming over to try conclusions with our own middle-weights, is described as a very likely lad. He will not be twenty years old till next July. He stands 5 fee; 9 inches, His body is said to be beautifully developed, demand.
William Coupe—A stake of $1,000 is sufficient if a man really wants to fight. As the matter stands now, if a champion doesn't want of sight. Some rule shoul prevent this unfairness. In a spirit of bravado and to show their contempt for public opinion the swells have organized another "club" for the purpose of killing rabbits with dogs. The doughty "hunters" have dubbed themselves the Eastern Coursing Club. They are going to "import" their rabbits. What is the matter with bringing an anise-seed bag into use? This is the way the famous Newport "fox" hunters do. The death throes of a good healthy anise-seed bag are not nearly so heartrending as those of a rabbit.

It has often been asked why it is that Sullivan and Kilrain, though both brought up in the same town—Natick, Mass.—never happened to spar together there. The reason is that Sullivan was educated as a pugilist, while Kilrain in his you'h was an oarsman. While Sullivan was clucated as a puglist, while Sullivan was going about boxing. Kilrain was mastering the science of the scull, and within eighteen months from the time he first took an oar nto his hand, he won the amateur championship of America. In 1889 he efeated unward of fifty competitors on the Passaic Hiver for the amateur championship. Passaic River for the amateur championship.
Lee, who was then an amateur, was among them. He was in the habit of sparring at the athletic club of which he was a member. He became as expert with the gloves as with the oars and sparred in public several times. Rival scullers then barred him from competing in races on the ground that he was a professional boxer. At a sparring exhibition he knocked out Charley Mitchell in a very few rounds. He had the entree to the now defunct Crib Club in Boston, where he used to spar. The Governors presented him with a private passkey so he could come and go as he pleased.
Sullivan also used to appear occasionally at the Club, but had no key. This made him jealous of Kilrain, and their hatred of one another dates from that time. Once Sullivan appeared half drunk at the Club and behaved badly. Thereafter the Governors refused to appeared half drunk at the Club and behaved badly. Thereafter the Governors refused to admit him. This, of course, still further enraged him. He asked permission to fight their "favorite," Kilrain, at the Club. They readily assented and subscribed a purse of $2,500 to go to the winner. Kilrain was only too glad of a chance to meet Sullivan. But Sullivan went away next day and the fight never took place. of $2,500 to go to the winner. Ritrain was only too glad of a chance to meet Sullivan. But Sullivan went away next day and the fight never took place.

As a boy in Natick, Sullivan was remark. As a boy in Natick, Sullivan was remarkable for his good nature. At the age of six-

Hood's

Sarsaparilla

Is carefully prepared from Sarsaparilla, Dandelton

Mandrake, Dock, Pipsissewa, Juniper Berries, and other well known vegetable remedies, in such a peculiar manner as to secure the full medicinal value of all. It

Hood's

Sarsaparilla

Overcomes that extreme tired feeling caused by change of climate, season, or life. Its peculiar ton-ing, purifying, and vitalizing qualities are soon felt throughout the entire system, expelling disease and giving prompt, healthy action to severy organ. It tones the stomach, creates an appetite, and rouses the liver and kidneys. Thousands who have taken it with benefit, testify that Hood's Sarsaparilla "makes the

Hood's

Sarsaparilla

Has a record of ourse of Scrotula and other blood dis cases never squalled by any other preparation. The most severe cases yield to this remedy when others have tailed to have the slightest effect. Hereditary scrofuls, which clings to the blood with the greatest tenacity, is cured by this peculiar medicine. Its many remarkable cures have won for Hood's Sarsapa rills the title of "The greatest blood purifier ever di

Hood's

Sarsaparilla

Has had remarkable success in curing dyspapsia sick headache, heartburn, sour stomach and similar troubles. It gently but surely tones the stomach and digestive organs, creates a good appe tite, cures sick headache, overcomes drowsy feeling and mental depression. It also acts upon the kidneys and liver, rousing these important organs to healthy

Hood's

Sarsaparilla

Is the only medicine of which can truly be said, "100 action. Now is the time to take Hood's Sa saparilla.

At no other season does the human system so muh need the aid of a reliable medicine like Hood's Sar-saparilla, as now. The impoverished condition of the blood, the weakening effects of the long, cold winter, the lost appetite, and that tired feeling, all make good spring medicine absolutely necessary. Hood's Sarsaparilla is peculiarly adapted for this purposa that the whole top of his head was one complete mass of matter. For two years I found no relief. Then I gave him one bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla, Then I gave him one bottle of Hood's Barsaparilla, and there was a wonderful improvement. I then got one bottle more and that cured him com-pletely, I give it to my children for a spring medi-cina Mrs. H. D. LeRoy, 1641 Hogan street, St.

Purifies the Blood

Purifies the Blood

"Every spring for years I have made it a practice to take from three to five bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla. secause I know it purifies the blood and thoroughly cleaness the system of all impurities. That lan-guid feeling, sometimes called 'spring fever,' will never visit the system that has been properly cared for by this never-failing remedy." W. H. LAW MENCE, Editor Agricultural Epitemist, Indianapolis, land.

Purifies the Blood

"For many years I have taken Hood's Sarsaparille in the early spring, when I am troubled with directions, duliness, unpleasant taste in my mouth in the morning. It removes this bad taste, relieves my headache and makes me feel greatly refreshed.

The two bottles I have used this spring have been worth many dellars to me. I advise all my friends to take it." John Binns, 663 43d street, Town of

Purifies the Blood

"I was very much run down in health, had n strength and no inclination to do anything. I have now been taking Hood's Sarsaparilla about a month and that tired feeling has left me, my appetite has returned, and take it all in all, I am like a new man. W all take Hood's Sarsaparilla. CHAUNCEY LATHAM, North Columbus, Ohio.

N. B.—If you decide to take Hood's Sarsaparilla do ribs and pass on. Sullivan would grin and punch back. Next, the young men got him to spar. At first they had lots of fun knock-Street Procession of "The Greatest ing the overgrown, gawky youngster about. Soon, however, John developed such skill that he turned the tables, and pummelled unmercifully all who stood before him. A manager got held of him and took him on a Show on Earth."

Purifies the Blood

'Evening World" Wagons Join in the Big Pageant.

Splendid Evening and a Splendid Exhibition That Charmed the Town.

Richard K. Fox telegraphed to L. R. Fulda, President of the California Athletic Club, asking what purse he would offer for Johnny Reagan to meet young Mitchell. Mr. Fox said there was no chance for a match between Kilrain arrived in Liverpool at noon yes-terday, and is now off on his junketing tour with Charley Mitchell et al.

scimetars, rode along on forty wild Arab horses. The horses were barbs, but the Arabs were not barbers. They were dressed in their native costume—a blanket and red

As they calloped down Broadway in a long. straggling line, with their guns twinkling and their simetars gleaming they looked like a band of Bedouins on a forage, and it seemed that they might loot the circus when they that they might loot the circus when they got back and carry off the camels!

"The camels are coming!" said Col. Maginnis Iveagh. And surely enough twenty-six of them were drifting down Broadway like ships of the desert that had become waterlogged. Twenty-six unhappy mortals were riding on top of them as ballast for 50

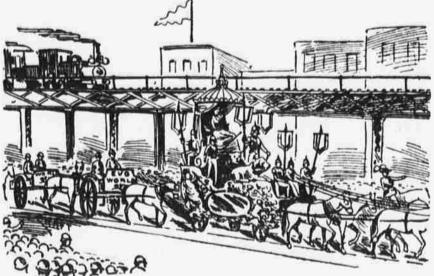

They looked as if they wished the camels were in some very hot region-like the Sa-hars, for instance.

hibition That Charmed the Town.

A delegation of Japanese rode on a dragon chariot, drawn by four camels.

Admiral Dot, who is about as large as a period, and Col. Nicholas, who is not much bigger than a semicolon, rode by on two ponies about as big as horsefiles.

The great caravan moved on as if the end of it was somewhere up in Tarrytown and it been split in twain by the horse-cars in the very middle of the exciting canvass last Fall, and was it now just getting home?

EVENING WORLD" WAGONS REIGHTEN THE GLOBIES OF THE GREAT PARADE

Three thousand torches twinkling down Broadway! Red lights and green lights and gray lights-even white lights, turned the darkness of the night into a sort of rainbow day. A hundred banners waved. A score of bands made the night air melodious with twenty different airs at once.

No, it was not a mere political procession. but something of far greater significance. It was the greatest show on earth, and it was making its magnificent progress through the streets of the imperial city of the country. Not the politician but the elephant was going round. It was not the enthusiastic party man, but animated nature.

As a man shuis his eyes before he looks at Miagara Falls, as an amateur stops his ears before listening to the wild and weird inspiration of Wagner—let us nause for a moment to take breath before regarding this marvellous and overwhelming procession. For a moment's rest let us fall into a chair in the second-story front of the Metropolitan Hotel.

There sits Mr. Barnum, whose head is crowned with the snows of eighty Winters, and in whose face shines the genial humor of eighty pleasant Summers, and who is as famous as any crowned head in Europe.

In that mid-March night dream of a circus which is coming down Broadway, there isn't a single animal which does not come from a part of the world that has heard of him, whether the Congo or the Tigris, Timbuctoo or Van Dieman's Land. As he talks with the talented young gentlemen from the press he or Van Dieman's Land. As he talks with the talented young gentlemen from the press he grows young by a rapidly descending scale.

He is eighty, he looks fifty, he talks like forty and he jests as blithely as a rollicking young man of twenty-five. He is not only acquainted with all the wonderful animals in the world, but he has known all the interesting men.

ing men.

His autobiography is regarded as one of the best examples of American humor. Punch, with wisdom rather than with wit, once proposed that he should come over and rule England. He is more wonderful than his show.

There is only one Barnum, and Col. Theo-dore Hamilton is his prophet!

The procession is coming!
All New York in on the sidewalks in the mild night air, as if it had never seen an elephant. The crowd is so dense than an elephant can scarcely make its way without stepping on somebody every minute or two. Two hundred thousand people are abroad.

To describe the procession would take a word painter or a Turner who had devoted his life to painting circuses. First came a fife wor d painter or a Turner who had devoted his life to painting circuses. First came a fife and drum corps of boys in Zouave suits. Then rode fifty six knights on the finest cir-cus palfreys. After the knights came a gor-geous golden chariot which fairly dazzled your eyes. It had a globe on top, and con-tinents and islands scattered or sprinkled over its surface. On tiptoe on top of the globe stood a representative of Mr. Barnum, like an enterprising showman who had found a strange new world.

like an enterprising showman who had found a strange new world.

Then came a dozen open cages of lions and tigers and panthers and wolves and leopards and hyenas, with a Daniel in each of them.

The lions shook their manes and roared so yon could hear them at the Battery. The tigers hunted up and down their cage as if they were looking for their keeper. The woves gathered around the bold, brave man in their cage as if they were reserving him for n their cage as if they were reserving him for late supper. The hyenes snarled and capered about

The hyenes sharted and capered about their cage as if they were going to make a lunch of their keeper after the procession. Next came a royal military band, riding in state on top of an eight-horse chariot, and sincerely envied by every little newsboy on sincerely envised by every little newsboy on the sidewalk.

After it pranced and cavorted five wild Arab stallions that used to gallop over the desert in search of unsophisticated caravans that had lost their way or gone to sleep.

Next rode twelve of the leading ladies of the circus on horseback, and then eight lady jockeys and twelve gentlemen jockeys and six old Romans, who cling to the old Roman custom of riding two horses at once while standing up on them.

They were followed by two Romans in Roman chariots, such as Julius Cæssar used to take afternoon drives in along the Appian Way to the Judge Smiths of his time. Each chariot was drawn by four horses, two teams abreast.

abreast.

Then the ears of the watching thousands drank in the melody of more bands, and everybody's eyes were dazzled by more gorgeous golden chariots.

Forty wild Arabs—at least, reasonably wild Arabs—with old-fashioned Arab guns such as you see in the geographies, and gleaming per week on the instalment plan. The cases in this elegant watch are warranted for 21 years. The movement full (15) jewelled. Only a small cash payment at first; balance can be paid in instalments of $1 per week. As we sail more watches in one month than most retail stores do in one year we can offer this watch for $38.00. We also sell a Lady's Gold Watch for $35.00 on this same plan. Remember, we deliver the watch with your first payment. This is much better than waiting ten months in a watch club.

A $50.00 GOLD WATCH FOR ONLY ONE DOLLAR

Please call and szamine these watches, or if you will sail send your name and address one of our agents will call at your house at any hour you desire with samples of exercial styles of watches and chains. Address Murphy & Ca., Room 14, 196 Broadway, New York, E. Y. we sall more watches in one month than most retail would never stop. There were more golden chariots than you could shake a stick at. There was a whole India full of elephants. There was Sinbad and Blue Beard and Cinderella and Red Riding Hood and many other familiar friends of all the children. There were all kinds of musical instruments. In fact, it was wonderful!

In fact, it was wonderful!
Mr. Barnum saw it ali from the balcony of the Metropolitan Hotel.
The circus opens to-night at Madison Square Garden.

THE PROCESSION'S ANNEX.

"Evening World" Delivery Wagons Add Interest to the Parade.

One of the most interesting features of Barnum's big parade last night was the almost endless procession of THE EVENING World delivery wagons. The parade, with out them, would have been like a dinner without dessert. They were the climax of the fine parade.

The people greeted them with cheers, well knowing that they represented the most enterprising, sparkling and popular evening newspaper in New York, or, for that matter, in the world. They aroused more interest than the Roman chariots. After " the greatest show on earth " came THE WORLD. There were so many of these interesting news wagons that nobody was able to count them. They showed the hundred thousands of friends of THE EVENING WORLD in New York how that great news-paper is scattered through every part of the great city with the speed of Mercury. They were a study in themselves.

were a study in themselves.

They were a great feature of the procession.

They attracted more attention than the lions and were more cheered than the elephants.

THE EVENING WORLD is always wide awake.

Last night it had a lark with the circus. It was recognized and welcomed everywhere as the greatest newspaper in the world out for a little holiday of its own.

(Continued from First Page.)

to oppose it when he has the chance. When he first heard about it, he expressed himself to me very strongly against it."

'Are you aware that the general understanding is that it is not to apply to old players, and that managers are held to be under a sort of moral obligation to pay their players the saiaries which they had been in the habit of receiving?"

'No, I did not, and that shows that I am not familiar with the new regulations. There will be plenty of time to consider those things after I have settled down and looked into the question. My return in advance of the rest of the boys was due principally to private matters, which demanded my presence here.

In reply to another question about the proposition ward to Washington he said:

'I can't say anything about that now, for I have not heard yet from any of the parties. When I went away I fully expected to be with the Boston club this season."

'But President Day says he will not let Boston have you."

"But President Day says he will not let Boston have you."
"Well, Mr. Day has a good deal to say about it, said the famous shortstop with a smile, "and if he objects! I don't see what I can do about it. In a word I can only say that at present I am entirely unsettled in my plans, and it may be some time before I shall decide definitely what I shall do."
"What do you think of Crane, has he made any improvement in his pitching since he went away."

any improvement in his pitching since he went away?

"He did not play at all for a long time," was the non-committal answer, "but he seems to pitch as swiftly as ever."

Ward, after leaving the steamer accompanied by two friends, went immediately to the Hotel Mariborough, at Broadway and Thirty-sixth street, where his wife is staying. He will remain there for the present, and the probability is that no meeting of the Brotherhood will be called until he has attended to his private matters.

It was remarked with some surprise by his friends that there was no representative of the Washington Club to meet him on his arrival, and no word has yet been received from President Hewitt.

THOUGHT HE GOT $5,000 FOR $400.

Mr. Reed Is a Victim to the Old Green Goods Swindle. Samuel W. Reed, of Birmingham, Ala., was acting in a suspicious manner in the Pennsylvania ferry-house in Jersey City this morning, and Policeman Reed questioned

It's all right, officer. I've got $5,000 for "It's all right, officer. I've got $5,000 for $400.
The officer tumbled and took the man to Police Headquarters. There the value he carried was opened and the same old packages of green paper were exposed to view.
The countryman said he had come on here to meet a Mr. Martel, of 167 Hester street,
He has gone to see if Inspector Byrnes can get his money back again.

Fanny Katz Sent Back to Europe. Fanny Katz, the young woman from Germany who protested against the decision of the Emigration Commissioners, who directed her return to Europe on the ground that her unborn turn to Europe on the ground that her unborn child was likely to become a public charge, was put on board one of the outward bound German steamers this morning.

It is believed at the Garden that the complaint made by her against one of the Custom-House inspectors yesterday, to the effect that he had attempted to take improper liberties with her, was only a trick to remain over, pending an investigation, during which time she would endeavor to escape. The Inspector is under suspension pending a further investigation.

(Continued from First Page.)

sent to the consideration of your honorable Committee a petition signed by more than one thousand residents of New York City and vicinity that the grading of One Hundred and Eleventh street be deferred until Oct. 1, 1889, in order that the New York baseball team may have the use of the Polo Grounds until that These petitioners form but the advance guard of the army which is sure to follow. Trusting that your honorable committee will give to these petitioners the consideration that they deserve. am respectfully yours.

EDITOR EVENING WORLD. Later in the day another messenger was sent to Alderman Divver with a second batch of pe-titions. This pleasant bombardment will be kept up.

Accompanying the names of the several thou-sand petitioners are hundreds of letters all bearing the same legend, though in different words.

"Save the Polo Grounds!"

A few of these, chosen at random and printed merely as samples of the others, will be found below:

to the Editor of The Evening World :

I send you five names in compliance with your request for signatures, and if necessary I will get out, "hustle" and procure 5,000 signa-tures. I will do as much as any one on earth for the success of our "Giants." Heart and soul, New York, March 22. HARRY P. RELLY.

An Appeal for Fair Warning.

Some of the arguments put forth by some of the property-owners in the nighborhood of the Polo Grounds sound as if they are the only taxpayers in the city.

Is there no consideration for tax-payers who nade their living from the people visiting the made their living from the people visiting the grounds?

Why not give them a chance this Summer so they can make some other arrangement to make a livelihood without loss?
A number of them would lose all their small savings if the grounds on the impulse of a few were destroyed.
Is not the voice of 25,000 voters enough to tell our city fathers how to please a number of their supporters for the next six months.
A favor granted is never forgotten.
A favor not granted is always remembered. Yours, respectfully.
March 22. Geo. W. Conney and signers.

From a Bachelor. THE WORLD forever. May you be successful in your efforts in behalf of baseball lovers.

Room 8, Alpine. D. A. WARING. Another Worker.

To the Editor of The Evening World:

If you will send me some of the Polo Grounds blanks I will get you about seventy-five or one hundred signers. Yours, &c... John T. Sutties, 130 East One Hundred and Twenty-eighth Genuine As Are All Others.

To the Editor of The Evening World: Enclosed herewith I hand you petition to Board of Aldermen filled out with five genuine

Board of Aldermen filled out with five genuine signatures. Had it been a column long could have filled it as easily.

Hoping your efforts will meet with success I remain yours truly WALTER E. HOAG.

214 ard 216 Broadway. The Glauts and "The Evening World." o the Editor of The Evening World; You have my heartiest wishes that you may succeed in your undertaking in trying to save our champion Giants from losing their battle-grounds until this season is over, and I have noticed that anything undertaken by THE EVER-ING WORLD seldom falls. I remain a reader of your valuable paper. MANTIN H. McGARRY, 109 East Eighty-ninth street. Inclosed find petitions.

From Wallagahallaga.

To the Editor of the Brening World:

We, the undersigned, wish you success in your indertaking to save the Polo Grounds. Your respectfully.

Committee—W. H. P. Hosgiand, captain; Life.
F. Dunbar, first base; Thos. Van Renseslaer, second base; Walter Van Voerst, third base.

Containing Twenty-Five Names. From the employees of Daniel Slote & Co. J who hope you will succeed in your enterprise.

Yours respectfully,
EMPLOYEES D. S. & Co., per J. C. M.

MATTIE ROLAND ARRESTED. She Who Sued Wealthy George Anderso for Breach of Promise.

SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.] SOMERVILLE, N. J., March 28 .- Miss Mattid Roland, of this place, again is brought promeinently into public notice by her arrest yesterday for disorderly conduct, for which she was held in $200 bail.

A second warrant was also served upon her on the charge of keeping a disorderly house, which, under the Jersey laws, has a general meaning, and may include a multitude of offences.

In November last Miss Roland caused the arrest of George Anderson, a wealthy bachelor of this town, who was temporarily stopping at the Sturtevant House in New York City.

The arrest was the beginning of a suit for breach of promise to marry, in which Miss Roland valued her damaged affections as $75,000.

Roland valued her damaged affections as $75,000.

The couple had known each other since childhood, and in May, 1884, she alleges, Anderson asked her to marry him.

He deferred the wedding under various pretexts, and in September last, she discovered that an immediate marriage was necessary to wasaway has requisition. sary to preserve her reputation.

This Anderson refused to do, and suggested a crimmal operation, which proposition was rejected, and, driven to the wall, the girl began her suit.

It is said that the matter was patched up in some way, and the suit has since been abandoned. Meanwhile, Anderson married a young lady in Jersey City, and is hunting in Florida.

THE GENUINE

Johann Hoff's Malt Extract, THE BEST NUTRITIVE TONIC FOR Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Nursing Mothers, the Weak and Debilitated.

Put up in this I have used Johann Hoffe Male Extract for the past five years in my private practice, and have found in to be the best health-restoring bever-age and tonic nutritive known. I age and tonio nutritive known. A have found it especially good for par-sons convulencing from forer, in cases of dyspepsin, for mathers nursing, and in cases of weakly children, and also in lung tros-bles. My attention was drawn by he immence importation comi-monthly, and about a million of bettles imperted by you have passed my is-spection in the Custom-House salar

OFF MALE orily for the past five years. Yours respectfully. W. W. LAMB, M.D. Chief Drug Inspector
U. S. Port Philadelphia

The "Genuine" is put up in this put up in this style of Bottles Beware of imitations. The "Genuine" has the signature of "JOHARS only. HOFF" and "MORITZ EISNER" on the neck of overly

Johann Hoff, Berlin, Paris, Vienna. EISNER & MENDELSON CO., Sale Agestic 6 BARCLAY STREET, NEW YORK,